

Please join us for a ride on county roads to visit Bio Town AG in Reynolds. Allow two hours for driving and viewing the operation.

Start at Cumberland Park.

Note: Cumberland Park is on North Salisbury Street in West Lafayette. About one mile north of Sagamore Parkway, cross street is Lagrange Street. (Home of the West Lafayette Farmer's Market.)

Cumberland Park, West Lafayette

Leave the park by turning left on Salisbury Street.

Head north on County Road 50 West. Road zig zags, becomes County Road 750 North and then County Road 100 West. Just before going over the Interstate you will go through the village of Cairo, pronounced "KAY-ro".

Turn right on County Road 850 North, a gravel road, but we will only be going a couple hundred feet down the road. It is a dead end road so there should be no traffic and parking on the road should be fine.

Replica Aircraft Watch Tower, Cairo

Operation Skywatch, "They also serve who stand and watch", Ground Observer Post Delta Lima 3 Green, the first ground observation post in the USA, commissioned by the United States Air Force on August 16th, 1952. Manned by civilian volunteers until 1954.

350,000 observers in G.O.C. nationwide. Program ended January, 1959. Slogan was "Wake Up! Sign Up! Look Up!"

Haan family in Cairo helped build the original tower.

The replica tower and monument were installed in 1976.

Operation Skywatch Monument, Cairo

Plan on twenty minutes for this stop.

Leaving the monument, head back to County Road 100 West and turn right, heading north. In White County this road becomes County Road 300 West. You will cross over Indiana 18 and continue north.

Flora Gamebird Habitat Area, Brookston

At US 24 turn right and go two miles to County Road 100 West and turn left. At County Road 100 North turn right. About ½ mile to the entrance of Bio Town AG.

Bio Town AG, Reynolds

Leaving Bio Town AG return to County Road 100 North and turn right, about ½ mile to Indiana 43 and turn right.

In Reynolds turn left at the stop light onto US 24, a few blocks to the USA restaurant.

USA Restaurant, Reynolds
